

Manning Elliott LLP has merged with Barkman & Tanaka, Chartered Professional Accountants

05 Dec 2018

Written by: editor

Tags: News

Manning Elliott LLP has merged with Barkman & Tanaka, Chartered Professional Accountants. - extending the range of core service offerings in the Greater Vancouver area.

VANCOUVER, BC - Effective October 1st, 2018, Barkman & Tanaka, Chartered Professional Accountants, officially merged with Manning Elliott LLP, Accountants & Business Advisors.

Manning Elliott's managing partner, Alden Aumann, says this merger substantially contributes to the firm's strategic vision to geographically increase its footprint in the Greater Vancouver area.

"This merger represents another step forward in helping the firm achieve its long-term strategic objectives. Barkman & Tanaka's client mix and practice areas are very similar with those of Manning Elliott LLP, and the Burnaby location is consistent with our strategic plan to geographically cover the Greater Vancouver area."

The team at Barkman & Tanaka, Chartered Professional Accountants, consists of 12 dedicated professional staff and is located at #225 - 9600 Cameron Street., Burnaby (North Road and Lougheed).

The office practices primarily in the area of Assurance, the Not-for-Profit and Owner Managed Private Company space, as well as Private Company Compliance, Tax Advisory & Estate Planning.

"We are delighted to have the professional team at Barkman & Tanaka., Chartered Professional Accountants, merge with our firm." says Mr. Aumann.

To our continued growth and success!
